Listening to songs

Listening to songs in English is one of the easiest and most pleasurable ways of improving and practicing the language.

Come along and listen to a song from a famous musical and find out information including: why it was written and who by, who the original performers were, the meaning of the song etc.
